

SHANI KULTURE

— LEADER OF THE KULTURE MOVEMENT —

Shani Kulture is an individual who has made significant contributions in various fields including pioneering, innovating, producing, engaging in philanthropy, and being an on-air radio personality. He can be heard on the highly popular morning show "Ebro in the Morning" on Hot 97, one of New York's prominent radio stations. His co-host role on this successful radio program has enabled him to establish an extensive network consisting of celebrities, music executives, rap legends, renowned R&B singers, top stylists, and influential individuals within the industry.