

DJ GT - The Only DJ That Gives a Jam.

What's the difference between a DJ who's skilled and a DJ who's felt? The gift...It's that gift, his graceful style, and talented ear for music that separates DJ GT apart in the heavily saturated world of Hip-hop. GT has become one of the most popular and well-accomplished DJ' 's in the fourth largest U.S. city – Houston, TX and its surrounding areas. For the past fifteen years GT has been a dedicated team-player at Radio One Houston, working his way up from intern while at Texas Southern University, to on-air personality on 97.9 The Box (KBXX). For the last two years, GT has also been heard master-minding signature mixes on Urban AC station, Majic 102.1 (KMJQ).

In addition to working the airwaves, GT has gained recognition at all levels of the business. He can be seen DJing for some of the hottest events locally and internationally alongside celebrities such as Diddy, Floyd Mayweather, Jay Z, Beyonce, Wendy Williams, Magic Johnson, Usher, and many of the Entertainment industries finest. In the summer of 2012, GT revealed to the world his hidden talent as a rap artist, releasing his album "Off The Record" in the summer of 2012. GT has received national acclaim, receiving the award for Dirty South DJ of the Year at the 2004 Mix Show Power Summit, he was selected as a member of the Source's 5 Mic Council at the 1999 and 2000 Source Hip-Hop Music Awards; was featured on the Dirty South edition of Rap Radio on BET' 's Rap City and is currently a nominee judge for the BET Awards. His high-end clientele includes Sony Pictures, Nike, The NBA, The NFL, Heineken, Pepsi, AT&T and Maxim.

DJ GT has become one of the best long-standing DJ's known to the South. It's no wonder

GT stands for Gifted and Talented.
