

KEVOY CLARKE

Reggae Recording Artist

Kevoy Clarke is a rising star in the reggae music scene, known for his soulful vocals, infectious rhythms, and profound lyrics.

Born and raised in Jamaica, and often compared to the likes of mentor, Romaine Virgo, his artistry draws for a unique blend of roots reggae, lovers rock, and old school dancehall, with a contemporary touch.

He released his first single "Girl You're Mine" in 2021, which became a sensation across the globe and was featured on Reggae Charts in Florida and New York. He has since released several singles and music videos under the Black Scorpio Label including "Hold You Close" and "Country Road", both of which have made it on Reggae Charts.

He also gained recent recognition as Original Reggae Song Winner of the Year by Jamaica Reggae Industry Association. Kevoy has captivated audiences including for Rebel Salute, Ghetto Splash, Rub A Dub Dancehall Thursday, and is now gearing up for Reggae Month and Reggae Sumfest! He is now working on a EP to release in May 2024!

His music can be streamed on all platforms including Spotify, iTunes, and Tidal.
