BIOGRAPHY

Tessellated is a multi-talented 26 year old Grammy & Emmy nominated artiste/producer from Kingston, Jamaica who burst onto the scene in 2017 with his bona fide Caribbean hit collaboration – Pine & Ginger - and since then has been at the front of a wave of exciting new music coming from the region.

Citing influences from many genres, a unique blend of styles and sounds shapes the backdrop for Tessellated's musical endeavour. Through this, he aims to push forward a fusion of Jamaica's roots presented alongside other world genres. With this original style, Tessellated has now carved out a lane of his own already garnering support from music industry heavyweights such as Camila Cabello, Lily Allen, Shaggy, Diplo, Major Lazer, Jorja Smith, Dua Lipa, and more.

Continuing the trend of breaking boundaries, in 2019 Tessellated picked up a huge sync deal for his track 'I Learnt Some Jazz Today' with Apple for the release of their new AirPods. After its release, the song saw massive support worldwide, racking up several million plays in a matter of months and going #1 on the Jazz Billboard Chart, a first for a Jamaican artiste. In 2020, the spot went on to earn Tessellated an Emmy Nomination in the category of Outstanding Commercial.

As a producer, Tessellated is also no newcomer, alongside self-producing his own records, his production has been featured on records from Tobi Lou, Jada Kingdom, Walshy Fire (of Major Lazer) and most recently Spice's album '10' (executive produced by Shaggy) which secured him a Grammy nomination in the category of Best Reggae Album.

In late 2020, Tessellated released his debut project 'Tropics Vol. 1' which since its release has garnered millions of streams worldwide and continues to grow. Most recently, his latest singles 'Girl Next Door' ft. Vybz Kartel & 'Balance' ft. IzyBeats have been buzzing worldwide, leading up to the release of his next project.

"Tessellated exemplifies the borderless creativity of Dancehall's next generation."
